

THE LATEST NEWS ON CAPSTONE

In addition to the land use permit received from Clark County for the entire 75 acres to build our school buildings and athletic fields, Capstone has retained an architectural firm to assist with the initial building design sketches. We have 10 acres that have been completely graded to build on, and another 40 acres ready to develop into our athletic fields and new stadium.

In recent months, our goal has been to gain exposure and a presence in the community. Our staff has had meetings with respected community members and business leaders whose experience and counsel will help our efforts tremendously. Thus far, the feedback has been extremely positive, with many saying that our project is a needed alternative for students and families seeking a high quality education in a Christian, moral and ethical environment.

Capstone has also received kudos as a school with the means to positively impact the development of businesses, medical facilities, and other public and private enterprises in the area around the school and throughout Las Vegas. The growth in Southern Nevada continues to highlight the need for alternatives in quality educational opportunities for families seeking to relocate to the greater Las Vegas area. Capstone is in a strategically and spiritually strong position to meet that need. ■

A Message From Director, Glen Goldie

“What a privilege it is for me to serve as the Executive Director of what will soon become one of the premier Christian schools in America — right here in Las Vegas! Capstone Christian School, located near the intersection of Amigo and Cactus Avenue in Southeast Las Vegas, will be built on 75 acres (in Las Vegas, having that amount of land is amazing!) in one of the fastest-growing and academically under-served areas of Southern Nevada.

In addition to the vast acreage, we have received a county-issued land use permit for the entire property, allowing school buildings and athletic fields on the site, and nearly $5 million in cash and pledges with which to begin our $35 million project. One veteran educator mentioned to me that this may be the best “start” to an independent school that he has ever seen.

Our goal is comprehensive excellence in education that includes a firm foundation in Christian values. To learn more about our definition of “excellence,” and what will set us apart as a school, please access our website at www.capstonechristian.org.

Our goal is to open with grades 6-9 in 2010, and move up one grade level per year thereafter, through high school.

An extremely important part of this project is our board’s vision for the future which includes many such schools of excellence throughout the Las Vegas Valley.

Capstone is only the first! Please follow our progress on our website. Your feedback is very important to us. If you feel led to partner with Capstone with your time, talent, and treasure, or to be a student, teacher, counselor, specialist, or administrator, or to

STAFF SPOTLIGHT

Tony Romo, Director of Development

Not to be confused with the equally famous quarterback of the Dallas Cowboys, Anthony “Tony” Romo has been a vital part of Capstone’s growth since becoming a member of our staff. He has been a development consultant for more than 30 years, and is well acquainted with the Las Vegas business and political scene. As a former district executive, field director and finance director of the Boy Scouts of America in New York, Salt Lake City, Los Angeles and Las Vegas, Tony is an enthusiastic supporter of programs and projects that benefit kids of all ages. He is gifted at networking and team building, and these qualities have been evident in the six months he has served Capstone as Director of Development. Tony’s energy, professionalism and passion for our project are positively infectious to all who work with him, and all of us with Capstone are blessed to have him on our team. ■

We are developing partnerships in the community for this important project. By partnering with us, you will share in the development of a world-class Christian educational facility in Las Vegas. Your financial gift to Capstone Christian is an opportunity to invest in the lives of Capstone’s students as they grow in their worship of God and excel in using their many talents in academics, athletics, the visual and performing arts and community service. Your generous monetary commitment will enrich the lives of Capstone’s first class of students and generations of future students as they grow into the leaders of tomorrow. Please contact us to discuss possible types of gifts toward the school project. We are a 501c3 organization. Your contributions are tax deductible as provided by law.

GET TO KNOW YOUR BOARD

Ann O’Connell

It’s not every board that boasts a 20-year member of the Nevada State Senate (and a Hall of Famer at that!), a 50-year resident of Southern Nevada and a civic and business icon with dozens of awards for community service. But we get to!

We are extremely blessed to have Ann O’Connell serve as our first president of the Capstone Board of Directors. Ann served in the State Senate with distinction, and has the honor of being one of only 28 people (and only the second woman) to be voted to the Senate Hall of Fame. As a legislator, she was very active in education legislation, including authoring a bill that establishes the current professional standard for teachers. Ann also authored a bill that requires school districts to send report cards to every parent, and another bill she sponsored allows home-schooled children the right to play team sports at their local public schools.

Some of her awards include “Outstanding Citizen of the Year,” “Woman of Achievement Award in Politics,” “Guardian of Liberty Award,” “Legislator of the Year,” “Nevada Women’s Role Model” and the “Free Enterprise Award.” Ann is a former Christian bookstore owner and is an enthusiastic leader and supporter of Capstone. She believes her years of experience and service in the community will assist in helping create one of the very best independent schools of excellence, within a Christian context, for the children and families of the Las Vegas Valley. Thank you for being a big part of our dream, Ann! ■
